Commemorating WWII's Forgotten D-Day and Forgotten Campaign

The 6th Army Group in France, Germany, and Austria

Hosted by Outpost International, Society of the 3^d Infantry Division

The 6th Army Group under General Jacob Devers fought from the beaches of Southern France, up the Rhone Valley, through the Vosges, cleared Alsace and the Colmar Pocket, broke through the West Wall, crossed the Rhine, overran southern Germany (including Nuernberg, Munich, and Berchtesgaden), and liberated significant portions of Austria (including Salzburg). The 6th Army Group included such illustrious commanders as LTG Alexander Patch, LTG Lucian Truscott, GEN Jean de Lattre de Tassigny, and MG Robert Frederick, and numerous 7th Army Medal of Honor recipients such as Audie L. Murphy, Charles P. Murray, Jr., Keith L. Ware, Robert Maxwell, Wilburn K. Ross, Stephen Gregg, Bernard Bell, and George Sakato.
