The First Vice Commander read the email he sent to the Executive Committee along with Commander Bryan Steele's response of his resignation from his office.

Campbell made a motion to install Jason R. as Commander for remainder of the year and was seconded by Chuck. Discussion was had about Marty staying as Commander and allowing Jason to chair multiple meetings. The motion was withdrawn. Pfeifer will be Commander for remainder of year.

Vanice shared a draft of recommended revisions to the Squadron's Constitution and Bylaws. He recommended that the revisions be reviewed by the committee before they are brought to the public.

The Commander shared that he would like to have the squadron fundraiser before the year is over. Ideas were shared like doing a Spring Fling, 50/50 raffles at post special dinners, with the Centennial One being the next large dinner, and doing something during the Bridge Walk.

With the colors of the nation being in place, the Commander rendered a hand salute and moved that the meeting be adjourned which was seconded by Vanice and was declared closed at 7:23 p.m.
